Recorded at the Huguenot Temple or Reformed Church
Charente-Maritime, France

Vermont French-Canadian Genealogical Society
John R. Fisher – Poissant - VT-FCGS Mbr #2

NOTE: 11 Nov 2012 Update: I added BMD from St Pierre de Sales Catholic records after completing scanning the 1584 to 1709 records, over 6000 pages, many for Abraham's family.

NOTE: 29 Sep 2012 Update: I added BMD from St Pierre de Sales Catholic records; mostly for Samuel Poissant's family.

NOTE: 18 Mar 2011 Update: I noticed that on this document I had used Poissan and Poissant. In my document containing the actual 63 records I had correctly used Poissant everywhere. If you look closely you will see that every name is Poissant, with a very small 't' which caused the initial confusion. John

NOTE: Updated on 21 Feb 2017 after finding 1638 bap for Samuel

The Poissant's of Quebec descend from Jacques Poissant, a soldier of the Franche Marine Company of De Noyan who arrived in New France at Quebec City on 12 November 1684. His abjuration or renouncement of the Huguenot faith took place on Palm Sunday, 15 April 1685 at Pointe-aux-Tremble, Montreal, Quebec. His parents were Jacques Poissant and Elizabeth Magord from Marennes.

On the 26th, 27th and 28th of September 2005, while visiting my daughter Elizabeth in Salt Lake City, Utah; I researched the Poissants at the Family History Library of the Latter Day Saints, or Mormons. On previous visits I had copied the marriage acts of my ancestors in my four major lineages, cleaned them up and put them online at my website. Most of these three research days were spent on microfilms 1733699 and 1733700, the Birth, Marriage and Death records of the Reformed Church (Calvinist Temple) of Marennes. First, I would like to thank the Mormon individuals who so painstakingly microfilmed these records and made my research possible. The records began in 1629, which had only one page, but begin in earnest in 1631 and ended in 1683. Note that the next microfilm began in 1757, which leaves a large gap in the records. It was very difficult to read and many of the French words were very old French, which is not in use today. I believe that my previous experience in entering and proof-reading the baptism and marriages of many Vermont churches this past year was a tremendous help in understanding these records from Marennes.

After seeing the results of the research of Christian Siguret and Bougrier at Fichier-Origine, an online website; my goal was to find the following;

- Jacques Poissant's baptism and birth act in 1661
- The marriage act of his father Jacques and Suzanne Guichard in 1653
- The marriage act of his father Jacques and 2nd wife, Elizabeth Magord
- The death act of Jacques mother Elizabeth Magord

I had also thought that I might find his father's birth act and to find his father's parents, but this was "a long shot"; and I did not. I found 3 of my goals but did not find the marriage act of Jacques and his second wife, Elizabeth Magord. But, I found 63 Poissant records! This is an amazing number. It is altogether possible that I missed some records, in fact, I am sure that I did. Most of the records I found were baptism records, a few marriage records that only list the husband & wife, and no parents; and several death records which turned out to be very valuable, contrary to what I find here in the United States where death record information is very brief and sometimes incorrect.

As it turns out, the 3 days in the library was only the beginning. I spent the next 3 days transcribing the records onto index cards, and I made at least 5 passes thru the 63 records to re-examine all the information, look up the strange French words such as Filiastre or Filhastre which means step-son, "present mois presente" and "derniere presente", "aieul", which means "grandparents", vefve, the old word for widow or widower, the various occupations especially saulnier or saunier which is a salt-seller or salt-workman, and many others. After this I began to assemble the families, 3 main families in the 1630's of Samuel, Pierre and Jacques; and then many more in the 1650's and 1660's and on. Because there were few marriage records, and because the earlier marriages never listed the parents, there was no way to link the families together, what a tragedy! However, by examining the baptisms, which gave the godparents and their relationships, and later examining the death records which named who assisted at the interments, and their relationship; I was able to link most of the families together. However, this is not absolute proof. I will explain these linkages later in the records below.

Two key surprises were; (1) the death record of Elizabeth Magord noted her step-son Raimond, who was born of Jacques and Suzanne Guichard; and (2) the death record of Raymond which listed his "cousins germain" or 1st cousins Samuel and Pierre which tied Jacques to the other 2 early families. Many other smaller relationships of godparents gave added confirmation that these families were all related.

My first Poissant ancestor in New France was Jacques Poissant who married Marguerite / Jacqueline Besset about 1698, possibly at Fort St Louis in Chambly. I was surprised again to learn that Jacques, a Franche Marine soldier, had 4 stepbrothers and 1 stepsister. I have no idea where his father Jacques went or where he died. I have not found his death or burial record. The younger Jacques had 5 stepsiblings, but I haven't found any of them as the head of a family. Maybe they moved elsewhere. There were 3 sons who were named Jacques; did the first 2 die young? I did not find any of their death records.

Layout of the Poissant Families

Samuel, Pierre and Jacques assumed to be brothers
Samuel &amp; Jeanne Bremand	Pierre &amp; Suzanne Periquand	Jacques &amp; (1) Suzanne Guichard (2) Elizabeth Magord
Samuel & Marie Courtois	Pierre & Anne Archambaud Abraham & Jeanne Chaigneau	Jacques (2) & Marg.Besset In New France / Quebec

NOTE 1: The above family linkages have not been proven by means of marriage records; but I made the assumptions based on information in the baptism & death records.

NOTE 2: The information in [] square brackets is my comments that show inter-family relationships.

NOTE 3: When I could not clearly understand the record, I substituted a ??.

NOTE 4: I am certain to have made some errors in reading or understanding the 63 records, and also in making so many assumptions. Please forgive me for these.

ID	Type	Description
JE	I	Elizabeth Magord – Raymond Poissant her stepson JS1 (no Bap or Marr. records)
JS1	X	At Raymond's death in 1679, at the interment were 1 st cousins PS2 & SJ5. This is a major link that ties all 3 brothers together; Jacques, Samuel & Pierre.
JS2	X?	GP is Jacques Mestivier
SJ2	X	GP is Pierre (PS) [uncle]

AJ1	I X?	Abraham's GP was Pierre (PS),( PS2) or (SJ2) – [1 st child - probably grandfather Pierre] [Could the Mestivier GP be a link to (JS) Jacques Family? (JS2) GP was Mestivier also]
AJ2	I?	Pierre's GP was Pierre (PS),( PS2) or (SJ2) – [probably uncle Pierre] [maybe cousin?]
AJ4	X?	[Could the Mestivier GP be a link to (JS) Jacques Family? (JS2) GP was Mestivier also]

SM3	X	At death was grandfather Samuel (SJ) and Abraham 2 nd cousin (AJ3) or (PA3)
SM5	? X	GP is Jean Gabiou, could this link to Jean Poissant the sailor? (very weak link) Assisting at Death was Samuel, father and Abraham, cousin, master glove maker (AJ)
SM6	X	GP Bremand is probably her grandmothers (SJ) brother. Assisting at Death was the father and Abraham, cousin, master glove maker (AJ)

NOTE: Jean Poissant (SJ3) & Elizabeth Gabiou appears to be a first marriage; and Jean Poissant & Marie Robert appears to be a second marriage. In both marriages, Jean is listed as a sailor and there are many common godparents in both families. Children in 1st family were born in 1655, 1657, 1659, 1662 and 1665; and in the second family they are born in 1673 and 1675. His age of 44 years at the time of his second marriage is a few years off from his baptism date. I would need to find several more Links to the other Poissant families to be more convinced.

NOTE 1: In almost every baptism, the child was named for the godparent of the same gender.

NOTE 2: Signatures begin to appear in the records in 1670, and Raimond signs as “Poissant” with an excellent signature. In 1672, Pierre signs as “Poissant” with an equally excellent signature, and Jean Poissant signs as “Poissant”. All Poissant signatures are very good, indicating that they had a good education in Marennnes. By 1676, most signatures are “Poissant” with a “t”.

NOTE 3: Naturally, the sobriquet of LaSaline never shows up in Marennnes, since it was a nickname that was given to Jacques when he joined the military. The records that I searched ended in 1683 and Jacques was not referenced in these later years.
